

International Mindedness

- to understand
- to respect
- to care

International Mindedness at ISU fosters an understanding and respect for the diversity of human experience and the significance of our natural world. It develops a global citizenship manifested by caring for others and the environment.

